1. Christmas is the most anticipated and magical occasion of the year. It is a time when carols are sung, colorful lights are twinkling in the streets, homes are bedecked with trinkets, and gifts are wrapped. It is a season of get-together of families and friends. It is also the time of the year that we are consciously extra generous.
2. It is in this light that I am appealing to all the Schools Divisions that as you celebrate your Christmas parties, please share to the least of our brethren in your respective communities. I encourage the Division Offices and even Schools to apportion 5%-10% of the Christmas Party expenses to the poor children in the most depressed area in your locality by giving ready packed meals. As Saint Teresa of Calcutta once said, "The hands that help are holier than the lips that pray."
3. For immediate dissemination.
